

THE MESSY NESSY CHIC SCAVENGER HUNT FOR FIRST DATES

- Easy one to start: A bird that is not a pigeon.
- An unusual door ... that looks fit for entrance to a secret society meeting (bonus points for describing and naming your hypothetical clandestine club).
- A menu displayed outside of a restaurant that lists both of your favourite classic dish (identify each of your dishes first)
- A gargoyle or mythical creature carved in stone (look up!)
- An item or style of clothing worn by a passerby that wouldn't be out of place in the 1920s.
- A composition or location worthy of a Wes Anderson movie
- A bookstore, selling the last good book each of you read (identify said books before entering).
- Something besides a building that's more than a century old and still in use.
- Two people on a date other than yourselves (1 point for young love, 2 points for long-time love).
- A Thomasson
- A courtyard or urban enclave hidden from the street (2 points) or a dead end (1 point)
- Something miniature in scale
- A shop with a vintage sign or historical facade indicating its past lives
- A garden that is not on the ground
- A piece of art in a gallery window that you both like
- An abandoned location brimming with potential
- A manhole with an illustrative element (other than words or a pattern)
- Someone wearing a mask in an alternative fashion
- A Trompe l'Oeil (worth 2 points) or a form of street art (1 point)
- Take a photograph of something you find beautiful - if your date snaps a picture of you, we'd say that merits a second date and you're #Winning either way!
